

Dr. Eileen M. Figueroa Rivera was born in Ponce, Puerto Rico. For 25 years she worked in the construction industry managing to have her own company. In 2008 closes Construction Solution Group and decides to reinvent herself, creating a FR Professional Service Company becoming a consultant. In 2010, finish a master's degree with two concentrations, management and human resources at Phoenix University. Six months later she began her doctoral studies in Business Administration at the Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico (PUCPR) completing in 2017. Her research specialty is in develop leaders with emotional intelligence. Winner of the Who's Who Among Students Award in 2015 among other recognitions. Currently, she continues her consulting company and since 2014 she works as an entrepreneur professor in PUCPR, Sistema Ana G. Mendez and Universidad de Puerto Rico and finishing an Entrepreneurship: Post-Doctoral Business Administration Certificate in Walden University. President of the International Council of Small Business Puerto Rico & Caribbean Affiliate (ICSB PR&C), member of the ICSB International Board of Directors, member of the Human Capital Executive Research Board (HCERB) and of the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM), Quality Collaborator at the Insights Renal Network 3, member of TCF steering committee PR Chapter and an active collaborator of Echar Pa'Lante - a multisector alliance to transform Puerto Rico in the Entrepreneurial Island.